TWO PATIENTS ARE COMMITTED TO THE ASYLUM

LUNACY COMMISSION HOLDS SESSION TODAY BEFORE COUNTY CLERK POHL.

James Cunningham, the aged resident of Tonopah who attempted suicide a week ago by slashing his throat with a razor, appeared before a lunacy commission this afternoon and was examined as to his sanity. Following the report of the examining physicians Cunningham was ordered committed to the state hospital for the insane by County Clerk Robert G. Pohl, who conducted the hearing.

Cunningham has been acting queerly for some time and a week ago Sunday he slashed his throat several times. Failing to end his existence he bound up the wounds with an old shirt and made his way to the office of Dr. Richards to have the injuries dressed.

Owen Smith, also aged, appeared before the lunacy board and was likewise committed to the asylum. Smith's actions have been peculiar of late and he was brought before the physicians after several complaints had been made as to his behavior. Drs. Richards, Cunningham and McDonnell formed the examining board.

AMUSEMENTS

Butler Theater.

At the Butler theater last night Miss Graham made her first appearance in Tonopah, and was well received. Her singing is as good as any that has been heard at the popular place of amusement. She will sing this evening the old popular song, "The Last Rose of Summer," and "Dreams." The pictures tonight are as follows: "Playing With Fire," a Vitaphone drama. Married life imposes more or less restraint on young Mrs. Harrington. Her husband is a staid business man and she thinks he lacks interest in her. She learns differently when she accepts an invitation from a gentleman friend to visit his brother's studio. Her husband thinks the friend has overstepped the bonds of propriety, and Mrs. Harrington learns a lesson, and incidentally that her husband's love for her is strong enough to protect her from herself and others. She never afterward doubts his love and returns it two fold. "A Reluctant Cinderella," an Edison comedy; "If We Only Knew," a Biograph comedy; "Fatty's Busy Day," a Kalem comedy. Tomorrow is Vitaphone day, showing five Vitaphone pictures.

Services in EPISCOPAL CHURCH
Dr. A. Lester Hazlett, archdeacon of the Episcopal diocese of Nevada, will conduct services in the Episcopal church in this city on next Sunday, June 29, as follows: Holy communion and sermon at 11 a. m.; evening prayer and sermon at 7:45. A very cordial invitation is extended to the general public.
